S.R.O. 324.—The following bye-laws for regulating the erection of any enclosure, fence, tent, awning or other temporary structure in the Cantonment of Barrackpore, made by the Cantonment Board, Barrackpore, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (18) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published, and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Bye-Laws for regulating the erection of enclosures, fence, tents, awning or other temporary structures in the Cantonment of Barrackpore.

1. No enclosure, fence, tent, awning or other temporary structure shall be erected on any land, other than a Class 'A' land, situated within the limits of the Cantonment of Barrackpore without the permission in writing of the Cantonment Board or the Executive Officer, if empowered in this behalf by the Board.

2. Any person intending to put up an enclosure, fence, tent, awning or other temporary structure within the Cantonment Area shall apply to the Executive Officer for permission in writing, specifying the location, the nature of the structure (whether enclosure, fence, tent, shed, awning etc.) the materials to be used, the area to be occupied, the purpose for which it is intended to be used and the period for which it shall be required.

3. The Cantonment Board or the Executive Officer, if so empowered by the Cantonment Board, may on receipt of the application either refuse to put up or permit the temporary erection of the structure subject to such terms and conditions as the Board or the Executive Officer, as the case may be, may deem fit to impose;

Provided that the concurrence of the Military Estates Officer shall be obtained if the erection is proposed to be put up on land not under the management of the Cantonment Board:

Provided further that if the land proposed to be occupied is not held by the applicant, he shall obtain the sanction of the competent authority before his application for permission under these bye-laws can be considered by the Cantonment Board or the Executive Officer.

4. The applicant, on receipt of the written permission from the Cantonment Board or the Executive Officer if so empowered by the Cantonment Board, shall put up the temporary structure within such time and subject to such terms and conditions as may be specified in the written permission:

Provided that the applicant shall be bound to remove the said structure entirely on the expiry of the period specified in the written permission, unless in the meantime he has applied for and the Cantonment Board or the Executive officer if so empowered has allowed an extension of the period of the permission.

5. If any person contravenes any provision of these bye-laws, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and, in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.

(F. 18/20/G/L&C/55/6487-LC/D(C&L).

S. D. CHATTERJEE, Under Secy.

S.R.O. 325.—The following bye-laws for the regulation of the collection and recovery of taxes on trades, profession and callings in the Shahjahanpur Cantonment, made by the Cantonment Board of Shahjahanpur, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (3) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924) are published for general information the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Byelaws for regulating the collection and recovery of taxes on trades professions and callings in the Shahjahanpur Cantonment.

1. From the information obtained by him under section 103 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924) or otherwise the Executive Officer shall cause to be prepared in Form A appended to these byelaws and kept up-to-date, a Demand and Collection Register in which the names of all persons liable to pay the tax shall be entered.

2. Within fifteen days of receipt of the bill relating to the aforesaid tax, any person dissatisfied with the assessment may apply to the Cantonment Board for a revision thereof.

3. Unless a person furnishes satisfactory proof to the Executive Officer before the first day of each half year that is to say, before the 1st day of April or the 1st day of October, as may be the case, that he has ceased to carry on his trade, profession or calling, he shall be liable for the payment of the tax for that half year.

4. On receipt of the tax, the Executive Officer shall in addition to the usual official receipt issue a token, showing the name of the person carrying on the trade or calling or exercising the profession, his address, the description of such trade, profession or calling and the amount of, and the period for which the tax is paid, in Form B appended to these byelaws.

5. The token issued under byelaw 4 shall be exhibited at a conspicuous place in the premises used by the tax-payer for the purpose of his trade, profession or calling, and shall be open to inspection at all hours during the day by the Executive Officer or any person authorised by him in this behalf.

6. At least one week before the expiry of the period mentioned in the token granted under these byelaws the token-holder shall apply to the Executive Officer for a new token.

7. No refund of the tax shall be allowed unless an application is made to the Cantonment Board within thirty days from the date on which the token-holder ceases to carry on his trade, profession or calling in the Cantonment.

8. No refund shall be allowed in respect of any period which is less than one month nor in respect of any trade, profession or calling which is closed temporarily.

9. Any contravention of byelaw 5 shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and, in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.
